Tuition & Registration Fees

The tuition fee is $320 for 25 hours of instruction plus an additional $50 for textbooks. All students will receive a free annual IIC membership. Membership gives free access to the Istituto's library and film collection, and free admission to selected Italian film screenings and cultural events.

Cancellation & Refunds

The Istituto reserves the right to cancel any course should the number of students registered for that course be insufficient. There are no make up classes. No refund is granted after course commencement. However, if a student is not able to attend a course and notifies the office within 7 days from the date of commencement, fees can be accredited to a subsequent term, within 12 months.

Textbooks

Textbooks and optional course material can be purchased directly at the Istituto Italiano di Cultura.

Placement Test & Examination Policy

A placement test can be provided before registration to determine proficiency. The Istituto also offers proficiency tests for official purposes.

Courses for children and teenagers
